NOTE: This notice is not a court order requiring you to vacate the rental property. However, if you remain on the premises after the expiration of this notice, your landlord may continue with New Hampshire’s lawful eviction process: That process would result in you being served by a sheriff with a summons called a Landlord and Tenant Writ. If served with a Landlord and Tenant Writ, you will have the right to dispute the reason(s) for the eviction at a hearing before a judge. To do that, you will have to file a document called an Appearance with the court where the eviction case is filed, no later than the “return date” listed on the Writ.
