

VACANCY ON THE NEW HAMPSHIRE SUPREME COURT
COMMITTEE ON CHARACTER & FITNESS

The New Hampshire Supreme Court seeks applications from qualified members of the New Hampshire bar who are interested in serving on the Committee on Character and Fitness. There is one open position for an attorney member of the committee. The committee conducts investigations and makes recommendations to the Supreme Court regarding the character and fitness of persons applying to become members of the New Hampshire bar. The committee has nine members and its duties are set forth in New Hampshire Supreme Court Rule 42(II). The appointment is for a three-year term and is renewable. Applicants must have been active members of the New Hampshire bar for at least five years, should be practicing lawyers with a well-developed understanding of legal ethics, and should have an affirmative interest in legal education and requirements for admission to the bar.

Committee members attend four meetings per year to consider applications and to interview applicants. More formal hearings may be scheduled as necessary. This is a volunteer position.

If you are interested, please obtain an application form by downloading it from the New Hampshire Supreme Court website, or by requesting it from Sherry M. Hieber, General Counsel, NH Supreme Court Office of Bar Admissions, at (603) 224-8806 or at shieber@nhoba.org. Please direct any questions to Ms. Hieber and send completed applications to her at 4 Chenell Drive, Suite 102, Concord, N.H. 03301, or by email or fax. Applications should be received by Ms. Hieber no later than December 15, 2018. Thank you.
